Youth Driven

Friday, April 13, 2012
10:00am-11:00am

Where: Newburgh Recreation
401 Washington St.

The City of Newburgh Youth Bureau is recruiting youth to sit on the Youth Council Board. The Board will consist of youth between the ages of 12 and 21, who will be social representatives of the youth in the city. Group members will share issues, give insight, and brainstorm for positive actions. Members will also meet periodically with Local City Officials, and maybe even with representatives in the New York State Assembly.

If this sounds like something you would like to take part in, or learn more about please join us at the first informational meeting being held on Friday April 13.
